

Ntokozo Mkhize

Ntokozo Mkhize, born and raised in a town called Pietermaritzburg in KZN. He is now based in Johannesburg. Ntokozo completed his BCom degree in 2005 at the University of Kwa-Zulu Natal in Pietermaritzburg majoring in Business Information Systems and Economics. In 2007 he started working as a Business Solutions Consultant for a Microsoft partner for 3.5 years. During that period he got certified as Microsoft Business Consultant for 4 different modules of Microsoft Dynamics GP.

Ntokozo currently holds a position as an IT Business Analyst at Massmart, one of South Africa's biggest retailers. He manages the Massmart Data Warehouse which receives and loads sales data from all the Massmart chains. With Walmart joining forces with Massmart, his scope of work has increased.

He completed a certificate program in Project Management at Wits Business School September 2012.

Through his exposure to the economic, personal and social ills, he has developed a keen sense to want to make a difference in the world. Starting with the community around him.
